plot: 2043m²

Nestled within the protected forests of La Mairena, this majestic 6-bedroom villa offers absolute privacy and sweeping views of the sea and mountains. The home is anchored by a spectacular double-height living room that floods the interior with light. On the first floor, an open-plan office space sits on the gallery, looking down over this grand living area—an inspiring setting for work or study. The kitchen is a culinary masterpiece, fitted with professional Miele appliances including a Teppanyaki grill, wok, and deep fryer and a food elevator. Unlike many properties, the gym and sauna are situated within the main living levels, allowing you to enjoy wellness with ease and natural light. The basement is the dedicated entertainment and service hub. It features a cinema room with a Bose sound system, a games room with a bar, and four expansive storage rooms. This level also houses the staff quarters, complete with a bedroom and small kitchenette for privacy and convenience. Outdoors, the 2,043 m² grounds include a mature fruit garden, an al fresco bar, and a stunning infinity pool with a Jacuzzi. Equipped with underfloor heating throughout, a comprehensive security system, solar energy, and a private 2-car garage, this villa is a flawless year-round sanctuary.
